night by Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Snoderly at Erie in honor of Misses Lula Brown and Mary Wright, of Fairmont. Those present were Messrs. Bernard Flaherty, Lloyd Grapes, Walter Howard, Arthur Wright, Howard Drummond, Foster Wright, J. O. Snoderly, of Fairmont, and George Danell and Dorsey Cole and Misses Pleasie Drummond, Alice Austin, Carrie Nutter, Susie Grapes and Iva Floyd, of Meadowbrook, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tomlinson. A delightful evening was spent with music and games, after which refreshments were served.

Aid Society Meets.
A very interesting meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Ash Chapel was held this afternoon in the reading room of the church.

Parsonage Marriage.
Mr. George M. Conway, of Kentucky, and Miss Hortense Hardman, of Wilsonburg, were married in the parsonage of the First Baptist church here at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor. After a short Western trip, they will reside at Stealey Heights. He holds a position with the Hazel-Atlas Glass Company.

Broad Oaks Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Flossie S. Hinman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hinman, to Mr. Alph H. Cottrill was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening in the home of the bride's parents on Buckhannon street, Broad Oaks. The Rev. Paul L. Flanagan, pastor of Ash Chapel Methodist Episcopal church, officiated in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Cottrill will reside at Industrial.

Entertains at Cards.
Mr. and Mrs. Osman E. Swartz entertained a few friends informally but very pleasantly last evening at cards. Auction bridge was played at three tables and at the completion of the game refreshments were served. The souvenirs for the highest scores were presented by the hostess to Mrs. Altizer and Mr. Alexander.

Those who enjoyed the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn S. Hornor, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carl Vance, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Miss Frost and Mrs. Riner G. Altizer, of Pittsburgh.

New Year's Dinner Party.
Celebrating the new year and what was believed to be the approaching election of the host as mayor of his town, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Parker gave a most beautifully appointed 6 o'clock dinner New Year's evening to a few of their most intimate friends. Covers were laid for ten. Their beautiful home at 409 Duff street, Stealey Heights, was profusely decorated with house plants, palms and greenery. Those in attendance feel grateful to "May" and Mrs. Parker for the unqualified hospitality they received on this auspicious occasion.

Entertains Class.
Mrs. S. C. Hess, teacher of a class in Christ Episcopal Sunday school, delightfully entertained the members of the class Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Chestnut street. Bible games and other amusements were features of the affair, which closed with the serving of dainty refreshments. Mrs. Hess was assisted in the dining room by Mrs. J. W. Walden, Mrs. Thomas Lemasters and Mrs. A. A. Cather. Among those present were Mrs. A. A. Cather, Mrs. J. W. Walden, Mrs. Thomas Lemasters, Miss Ethel Gribble, Misses Irene and Allene Walbridge, Miss Frances Moore, Miss Atha Davis and Miss Hazel Alexander.

Thimble Club Entertained.
Mrs. Morgan Parsons pleasantly entertained members of the Thimble Club Wednesday afternoon in her home on Clark street. Christmas decorations of evergreens, smilax, bells and candelabra formed the decorations of the dining room, where refreshments were served.

Among the guests were Mrs. Charles Ridenour, Mrs. John Doham, Mrs. T. L. Nutter, Mrs. Elmer Goodwin, Miss Merle Nutter, Mrs. Millard L. Snider, Mrs. Parr, Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer, Mrs. A. J. Watson, Mrs. S. A. Smith, Mrs. W. T. Hall, Mrs. Bassel C. Higgs, Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. Charles B. McCarty, Mrs. M. F. Morris, Mrs. John Gandy, Mrs. John Sopher, Mrs. R. E. Groves, Mrs. M. A. Corcoran and Miss Mary Muncie.

Children's Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Lewis entertained at a most attractive children's party Wednesday evening in their home on West Pike street. The affair was in honor of their little daughter, Nora, and son, Mord.

The rooms were brilliant with their Christmas decorations. A large Christmas tree stood in the library laden with attractive toys and dolls, which furnished amusement for the young folk until 9 o'clock when refreshments were served in the dining room from a prettily appointed Christmas table which bore a miniature toboggan slide glistening with snow and ice upon which were miniature girls and boys in toboggan attire on sleds, snow shoes and skates. Garlands and ropes of greenery were artistically festooned from the chandelier to the corners of the table. There were also groupings of tripods of candy canes holding mint stick baskets of bonbons and tapers in crystal holders. Ices, cake and fruit punch were served by the host and hostess to the young guests and dainty boxes of bonbons were given as favors.

Those on the guest list of this delightful little party were Jack and Robert Lewis, James Edward and John Davis, Maurice Reed, May and Billy Potter, Mary Virginia Rapp, Matilda Karlins, George Finly, Jack and Jim Altizer, Katherine Swager, Henry Curtin, Thomas Seely Stone, Alice and Frances Taylor, Boyd Hornor, Raymond Rapp, Martha Maxwell and "Bobby Kinks" Wallis.

Cole-Hoff Wedding.
The following article is taken from the Grafton Sentinel of Wednesday evening:

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hoff, of Maple avenue, at 8:30 o'clock last evening when their youngest daughter, Miss Della Louise, became the bride of Mr. Nathan Cole, a prominent young man, formerly of this city, but now of Clarksburg.

The wedding had been scheduled for 8:30, at which time a large number of friends and relatives were assembled to witness the ceremony.

Promptly at the appointed hour the bride and bridegroom, accompanied by Mr. George W. Brannan as best man and Miss Pearl McDaniel as bridesmaid, entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Lillian Waters.

There they were met by the Rev. E. H. Waters, the bride's pastor, who officiated, using the ring ceremony of the United Brethren church.

The bride was daintily dressed in net over white satin, while the bridegroom wore a dark blue suit. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley while the bridesmaid also carried flowers.

After the ceremony congratulations were extended and delicious refreshments were served.

The bride is an accomplished musician and has for three years been organist of the church to which she belongs, while the bridegroom holds a good position with the Sayre Brothers, photographers of Clarksburg. Many nice and useful presents were received by them during the evening. Among those present from out of town were the following: Messrs. Dillon and Floyd Sayre and Misses Fay Costello and Gertrude Flint, of Clarksburg.

The bride and bridegroom left on train No. 4 for an eastern tour, after which they will be at home to their friends in Clarksburg.
